ZERO TOLERANCE / SPORTSMANSHIP / EJECTION POLICY: will be enforced for all coaches, players, parents and spectators before, during or after a game.

a. Head coaches are responsible for his or her team, including assistant coaches, players, parents and spectators conduct at all times during practices and games.

b. Coaches, players, parents or spectators are not allowed to charge a game official or any employee that is assigned or hired by any booster club to perform his or her duties.

c. No coach, player, parent or spectator is allowed to question the game officials' judgement on a call during a game.

d. Any coach, player, parent or spectator that approaches any game official with the intent to argue a judgement call during or after a game, they will be warned to return to their bench. If any advancement continues, an ejection from the game could be given. Must leave the vicinity of the playing area immediately. (Out of sight). Getting an ejection from a game is an automatic two (2) game suspension. Refusing to leave immediately and peacefully will result in an automatic rest of the season suspension including any post-season tournament games and the game will be a forfeit.

e. No coach, parent, player or spectator is to come to the scorers table during or after the game to question or harass the scorekeepers and/or referees. This will result in an automatic ejection from the game and/or the next game(s) if it takes place at the end of the game.

f. Only the head coach is allowed to approach or address a game official.

g. TOUCHING OR THREATENING ANY GAME OFFICIAL - GONE FOR THE SEASON. Could include further suspension beyond the rest of the current season and into any future season.

h. Coach, parent, players or spectators are not to badger, mock, intimidate, taunt any game official, coach, player, parent or spectator in any manner during the course of the game or after.

i. Under no circumstances are the coaches, parents, players or spectators to argue with game officials, or any member of the opposing team.

j. Any ejections that occur in that team's last game, the suspension will be for the first (2) two games of the next sport the coach, participate or attend.

k. Any team having two incidents with coaches, parents, players or spectators being ejected or removed from the game will be disqualified from participating in post-season tournaments.

l. Any coach, player, parent or spectator that is suspended for any amount of games due to disciplinary actions and shows up to attend any game during their suspension, game will be a forfeit and the sheriffs office will be called for removal of facilities and will be suspended for the remainder of the season from all games including any tournament games and/or any future games.

m. NO APPEALS

The league can make any adjustments to any rule or policy not in writing at the time of offense.