WEEKLY PREVIEW-November 14, 2011

The 2011-2012 boys basketball season gets under way with the Trojans traveling to Parkview to take on the host, Panthers, in their annual Tip-Off Tournament. Coach Morris' squad is still coming to form as many underclassmen have been combined with some older guys to complete a roster that will be missing several of last year's stars, who are still playing football. This tournament should be a good preview of what looks on paper to be a promising season for the Lassiter Boys Basketball program. The Trojans are scheduled to complete this three game tournament on Monday and Tuesday of Thanksgiving break. Lassiter will be closer to home at then end of the break as they travel to Roswell next Saturday to take on the Blessed Trinity Titans.

LASSITER HEAD COACH SPOTLIGHT, JEREMY MORRIS

Coach Morris is entering his fifth year as the head coach of the Trojans. Coach Morris was named head basketball coach in the summer of 2007. After taking over a team that won five games in 2006-2007 season, Coach Morris posted the first winning season for the Trojans with 16 wins and 12 losses. The Trojans completed their first back to back winning seasons since the 2000-2003 in 2008 when the Trojans posted a record of 19-6. The 2007-2008 team consisted of a number of great athletes including Blaise White, who has been a three year starter at Birmingham Southern University, as well as, football standouts Phillip Lutzenkirchen of Auburn and Hutson Mason of the University of Georgia. The 2010-2011 season saw the Trojans earn their first playoff berth since 2003-2004 and the 4th in school history.

He is a native of Greenville, Kentucky, where he played high school basketball at Muhlenberg South High School. Coach Morris graduated as the school's all time leading scorer and rebounder, which led to him being named All-State in Kentucky for the 1995-1996 and the 1996-1997 seasons. He was named a participant on the Kentucky junior all-star team based on his accomplishments at Muhlenberg South. Coach Morris continued his playing career at Berry College in Rome, Georgia, where he captained the team his junior and senior seasons. Upon graduation, Coach Morris joined the Lassiter Basketball and Baseball programs as an assistant in 2001. As a member of the baseball coaching staff, he served as the junior varsity coach and varsity pitching coach where he contributed to the 2006 State Championship team. Since coming to Lassiter, Coach Morris has served many roles in the basketball program including head freshmen boys coach, assistant varsity boys coach, and assistant varsity girls coach during the 2006-2007 season that saw the girls team make an appearance in the state playoffs.

Coach Morris has been a member of the Social Studies department since 2001, where he has taught World History, Government, and AP European History. He has led numerous summer trips for students to explore various parts of Europe. Coach Morris also sponsors the Lassiter FCA.

In 2007, Coach Morris married the former Amy D'Anna of Marietta GA, a standout soccer player at Walton High School and Roanoke College. They have two children, Jude (3) and Owyn (10 months).

LAST WEEK FOR THE TROJANS

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEK

- PARKVIEW....the Panthers play host to eight teams in this opening tournament that will see how the Trojans stack up against some teams outside of Cobb County....Parkview has four players over 6'3, so their height will play a big factor in the season opener....Lassiter's roster is thinner for this opening game than it will be in future contests as there are numerous prospects are a part of the state playoff Lassiter Football team that travels to McEachern on Friday night.....Lassiter will return to Parkview on Monday and Tuesday for two more games as a part of the Tip-Off Tournament...game times will be either 4:30 or 7:30 each day....
- BLESSED TRINITY...the Trojans will take on a Titans team that is used to winning...over the past five seasons, Blessed Trinity is 108-39, including a 15 win season last year...they are averaging almost 22 wins in this five year span...it may be the first trip ever to BT for the Trojans.....
