Things to bring to Camp

Tennis shoes and/or football cleats
Athletic shorts and t-shirt
Water or Sports Drink (No Soda)
Bagged Snack (there will be a 30 minute break)

There will be a morning and evening session. You are invited to attend either or both.

If you sign up for either a morning or evening session the cost is $50 for the three days. If you sign up for both sessions it will be $85.00.

Camp Staff

Cyclone Football Camp will be staffed by the Eastern View High School football staff . Assisting the coaches will be Cyclone Football Players who are preparing to play in college or for the upcoming Cyclone season. There will also may be volunteer coaches from the Culpeper Football Association to help with instruction.

Camp

The camp will stress fundamentals of football. Campers will receive individual instruction on both offensive and defensive techniques. The camp will focus on the total student athlete with sessions on goal setting and grades. While the camp is focusing on the fundamentals of football, the staff will ensure the campers are having fun while learning and creating excitement about football in Culpeper County.
