

Philosophy of Camp

To provide and promote opportunities to the total volleyball student-athlete experience. This camp will expose players to the opportunities of playing volleyball at all collegiate levels and the responsibilities that come along with it. This camp is designed for players who have a desire to play in college and want to learn from and be recognized by college coaches at all levels.

Staff

The Camp staff consists of college coaches at the D-I, D-II, D-III, and NAIA levels. They will instruct the campers thru all drills, skills and instruction. Camp counselors are former and current collegiate players.

Location and Facility

ALL NEW FOR 2012! The camp will be held on the beautiful campus of California University of Pa. Just off of I-70. New Convocation center holds 8 courts and camp capacity of 11 courts on campus.

Special Features

Special Guest Speakers

Experts speaking on topics such as: Important Nutrition Tips for Athletes and Training for Mental Toughness

Special Sessions

Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Trainers will work with campers "off-court" in developing the proper training techniques.

Parent and Camper Workshops

Workshops will be held throughout the camp providing information to parents and campers on understanding the recruiting process, how to market the student athlete, including our popular roundtable discussion with many of our college coaches.
