VARSITY COMES BACK TO GET SPLIT WITH LEHMAN

The Varsity Timberwolves did a great job battling through a setback at the start of the week to avoid the sweep by Lehman.

The Timberwolves' struggles started early on Tuesday afternoon as they allowed 8 runs in the 1st inning. The game ended up requiring an effort from just about the entire pitching staff, with appearances by Kyle McClure, Damian Alonzo, Connor Norris, and Aiden Herrera. At the plate, Bryce Schneider led the way with 2 hits, and Hudson Cuevas contributed 2 RBIs.

On Wednesday, the Varsity team came out and attacked the new day like a team trying to be 1-0 by the end of the day, walking away with an impressive 6-1 win. On the mound, Griffin Giltrap pitched well, scattering 5 hits and 4 walks over 5 innings, while only allowing 1 run and striking out 6. Bryce Schneider came in and closed the door for the final 2 innings, allowing 2 hits and striking out 4. At the plate, Cooper Camacho was swinging a hot bat with 3 hits and 4 RBIs. Schneider, Cuevas, Alonzo, and Washburn all had hits of their own.

The Timberwolves look to continue improving and attack the Leander series when we return from break.

JV GREEN RUN RULES LEHMAN

The JV Green looked impressive in their lone game against Lehman over the break, earning a 12-0 victory.

On the mound for the Timberwolves, Joseph Chao pitched very well, throwing a 5-inning complete game shutout. Chao allowed just 2 hits, struck out 6, and did not allow the Lobos to score.

At the plate, Parker Green led the way with 3 RBIs. Colin Weske, Evan Daly, and Grant Rogers all had 2 RBIs of their own. Jaxon Hadlock and Jaxon Kane also contributed an RBI apiece.

JV SILVER GETS COME FROM BEHIND WIN OVER LEHMAN

The JV Silver completed the comeback against Lehman with an impressive 5-4 win.

Nathan Ferro started on the mound and pitched well. Through 2.1 innings, he allowed just 2 hits, 2 walks, 3 earned runs, and struck out 2. He turned the ball over to Ian D'Arcy, who pitched for 4.2 innings, allowing just 2 hits, 3 walks, and striking out 6.

At the plate, Nathan helped his own cause by driving in 2 RBIs. Grayson Pearce led all hitters with 2 hits. Caleb Carey and Mason Ulrich also had RBIs in the game.

We cannot wait to see these guys get back out on the field when we return.
