INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

JV weekly Recap	2
Weekly Agenda	2

Special points of interest:

- The six weeks ends on Friday (4/11). We need to continue pushing our Timberwolves to work hard and close this out the right way.
- Just a reminder we will have practice on April 21, 2025.

VARSITY BATTLES HARD ALL WEEK AGAINST ROUSE

The Varsity Timberwolves played very competitively against Rouse in both games this week but came up just shy both times.

On Tuesday night, the Timberwolves got a great starting performance from Kyle McClure, who went 7 full innings, allowing just 5 hits, walking 5, and striking out 2. Kyle did not allow a Rouse player to cross the plate. At the plate, Bryce Schneider, Hudson Cuevas, Damian Alonzo, and Brandon Washburn each had 1 hit. The game went into extra innings, where the Timberwolves fell 6-0.

On Friday night, Griffinn Giltrap took to the mound and gave the Timberwolves a chance once again. Pitching 5 complete innings, he allowed just 5 hits, 3 walks, and struck out 3 while allowing 2 earned runs. He turned the ball over to Damian Alonzo, who pitched 1 inning, striking out 2, allowing 1 hit, 1 walk, and 1 earned run. At the plate, Bryce Schneider was able to push the Timberwolves' lone run across in the 5th inning. The Timberwolves fell 4-1.

The Timberwolves will be back in action next week against Lockhart.

JV GREEN BATTLES HARD AGAINST ROUSE

The JV Green played two highly competitive games this week against a quality Rouse team.

On Tuesday night, Joseph Chao and Jaxon Kane combined on the mound, allowing 4 hits, 9 walks, and 13 strikeouts.

On Friday night, Carter Frith took the mound to start and competed well. He turned the ball over to Jaxon Hadlock, who finished the final inning and two-thirds. Colin Weske led all hitters with 2 hits and 1 RBI.

We look forward to seeing these guys get out and compete next week.

JV SILVER SHOWS GRIT VS ROUSE

The JV Silver showed a lot of very promising things against Rouse this week in their two-game series.

Barron Bauer took to the mound on Tuesday night and pitched well. At the plate, the bats seemed to find solid footing.

The team battled back on Friday night and lost the game late, 7-5. Ian D'Arcy once again looked impressive on the mound. At the plate, every Timberwolf found a way to contribute.

We are pumped to see these guys get back out there this week and compete again.
