ERIC KIBLER'S BASEBALL CLINICS

The 36th Annual Eric Kibler's Baseball Clinics is being held at Horizon High School on the varsity field. In the past 35 years, there have been over 5,000 boys and girls who have attended camp. The main purpose of this camp is to give boys and girls of the area the opportunity to participate in a fun camp filled with sound fundamental techniques. The age group classification is 7-15, depending on the specific camp.

Camp members should bring their own gloves, bats, water and money for the snack bar. There is food and souvenirs at the snack bar.

PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of camp is to maintain a good coach-player teaching relationship, so be sure to get your application in as early as possible to provide your son or daughter the best possible learning situation. Varsity players for Horizon will be assisting in the camp. Awards and scholarships are given out each session.

OBJECTIVES

To provide each individual player the basic fundamentals in throwing, fielding, hitting, and catching. Each player will be provided with individual instruction along with an evaluation of the improvement.

COACH KIBLER

Eric Kibler has been a head coach for 40 years. Horizon over its 35 years existence has won over 43 different championships. Horizon has been the host for 18 years of a successful national invitational tournament. Several players have gone to college & the professional ranks. Coach Kibler is the only high school to be awarded the USA Baseball Coach of the Year in 2010. He was an Asst. Coach in 2009 for 16U Olympic Team who won a gold medal and was the Head Coach in 2010 which won the gold in the Pan American Games in Mexico. He has been selected to coordinate the 14U and 17U Olympic Development Program for the USA. He has been selected an Asst. Coach for the 2015 18U USA National Team to play in the World Championships in Japan this summer.
