John Altobelli– Head Baseball Coach, Orange Coast College

Four-time OEC Coach of the Year AND 2009 California Coach of the year. After 16 years of coming close, OCC finally reached the top of the mountain in 2009 as the team and Coach Altobelli won their first state championship since 1980. Coach Altobelli also earned the top spot on OCC's all-time wins list, topping legendary coach Mike Mayne's 400 career wins.

Mike Grahovac– Head Baseball Coach, Concordia University

Grahovac enters his 5th season as head coach after a successful 2012 season where the Eagles won their second consecutive GSAC Tournament Championship, advanced to the NAIA Opening Round as the #1 seed and finished with a 38-18, 22-10 GSAC record. In four years at the program's helm, Grahovac's teams have combined to go 130-87. 2012 marked the program's second trip to the NAIA Opening Round. His 2012 squad set records in doubles (124) and triples (29). Grahovac was the 2011 NAIA Coach of the Year.

Bob Flint–OCC Asst. Coach and Head High School Coach

Bob was a long time head coach at Irvine High School and Woodbridge High School and most recently was an assistant coach to John Altobelli at Orange Coast College.
