

Senior AAA Rule Changes 2019

Add a new P2.8(h) and (i) as follows:

- a) Senior AAA teams are permitted to mutually affiliate themselves with any one Junior team within their Affiliated Association as long as their Local Association does not have a Junior team.
- b) If the Baseball Canada Junior Nationals are hosted by an Ontario team – the players on the Junior host are only permitted to be called up to a Senior team during Eliminations as long as they are a member of the same Local Association.

Add a new P2.8(j) as follows:

- a) Senior AAA teams are permitted a maximum of 3 Junior or Midget-aged call-ups for Eliminations.

Add a new P6(v) as follows:

- v) Following the Senior Elimination Tournament, the following procedure shall take place when two or more Ontario teams are representing the province at the Senior Men's Nationals:
 - The Senior Series Chair shall conduct a National Player Draft no later than 72 hours following the completion of the Senior Elimination Tournament.
 - Players may not be contacted by any team prior to the National Player Draft.
 - No later than 24 hours prior to the draft, each team shall present a list of 15 potential players that they are interested in selecting as additional players to complement their National Championship roster.
 - The Senior Series Chair shall contact each player on the list to request the player's availability to attend Nationals if they are selected to attend. No team shall contact the player prior to being drafted. Prior to the National Player Draft, the Senior Series Chair shall present a list of the available players to the team.
 - There are no restriction on players that can be selected to attend Nationals as a pick-up, players may be selected to attend Nationals with any representative team regardless of geographical location.
 - A player may only attend Nationals with the team they are drafted to. If the player elects to not attend Nationals with that team, that player is ineligible to attend Nationals with another team.
 - The National Player Draft shall follow the procedure outlined below:
 - i) Team Ontario 1 shall select the first two picks.
 - ii) Team Ontario 2 shall select the next two picks.
 - iii) Any subsequent team shall select their first two picks in order of how they finished at Eliminations.
 - iv) Each team will then select 1 player in order of Elimination Round until no further picks are necessary.
