All members of our organization (Directors, Coaches and Instructors) are required to pass an annual background check through USA basketball. Depending on the level of licensing required for your position, this cost can range from $45 - $75. We will reimburse all approved applicants. You will not be able to work with any players until you receive this licensing. Do you understand and agree to abide by this requirement? Yes / No

Our organization and our insurance carrier require all adults in our organization to abide by our "Rule of 3" requirement. Simply put, this requires 2 or more adults be present at all times when there is 1 youth, and that there must be at least 2 youth present when there is only one coach. Do you understand and agree to abide by this requirement? Yes / No

Our organization and our insurance carrier require that all coaches, Directors and instructors abide by our policy of reporting Any known or suspected abuse incidents to law enforcement. Our procedure will be to report any known or suspected abuse incidents to the Director, who will contact the parents and law enforcement. Do you understand and agree to abide by this requirement? Yes / No

The positive reputation of Factory Basketball is something we have worked long and hard to establish. We have a good report with officials, tournament directors, players, parents and other coaches. This is something we feel strongly about maintaining, and therefor require our coaches to act in a manner that reflects/represents our philosophy and culture, and that will only positively represent Factory Basketball within the basketball community. Do you understand our coaches' code of conduct, as posted on our website, and agree to abide by it in our practices and games? Yes / No
