OWN IT – One Team, One Tribe...

THE NORTH HILLS WRESTLING TEAM FINISHES THE WEEK 2-0

This past week the Indians were in action at home against Pittsburgh Central Catholic and on the road at Peters Township. The Indians are starting to find their identity and are competing with great confidence. In the Indians first meet of the week, the Indians would earn a landslide victory over the Vikings by a score 57-19. Juniors Luke Fotta, Nathan Mankey, Jake Stotz and Kevin Dreyer each pinned their opponents giving the team a collective total of 24 points. Brian Fulton also added to the team score winning his match with an impressive decision win over Central's wrestler in the 195lb. weight class. In the last matchup of the night senior captain, Gage Curry also pinned his opponent contributing to the team's already extensive lead. In addition to a win for the Indian's on Wednesday, North Hills also hosted youth recognition night acknowledging the hard work that goes into the wrestling program on every level.

The second meet of the week was our North Hills Indians against the Indians of Peters Township. The North Hills Indians stepped on the mat competing at a high level against Peters Township who is the #14 ranked WPIAL team. After the first four bouts of the dual the meet was tied at 12 a piece making it an interesting early back and fourth battle. After the fifth match of the night, the NH Indians took the team lead with a score of 18-12 and the NH Indians never looked back. The NH Indians would go on to earn an impressive victory by the score of 42-33 over Peters Township.

INDIANS EXCITED ABOUT UPCOMING WEST MIFFLIN HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

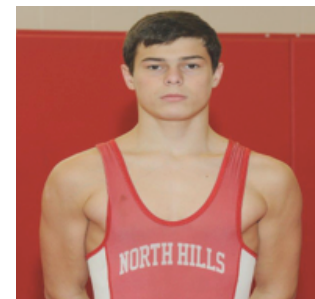

The NH Indians are now 6-2 on the season and are excited for the opportunity to get back in the training room and prepare for their next competition. Their next competition will be December 29th & 30th at the West Mifflin Holiday Tournament where they look to defend their team title from last year.
