OWN IT - One Team, One Tribe...

INDIANS EDGE PLUM 36-33

The Indians wrestling team improved their win streak to five with a hard fought 36-33 victory on the road against the Plum Mustangs Wednesday night. Once again the Indians found themselves in a back and forth match with the outcome of the meet coming down to the last match of the night. With the dual meet score 33-30 in favor of Plum going into the last bout, Indians 152lb. senior Val Caruso came up big for his team with a fall in 4:30 giving the Indians a critical sub-section win to help the Indians stay in second place in sub-section 3B competition.

Helping score bonus points for the Indians with pins were Jake Stotz and Devon Cuda. Sean Bright and Gage Curry received forfeits. Nathan Mankey and Keagan Lawson won by decision with Lawson's victory coming in overtime. While Val Caruso may have had the biggest moment of the night, his Indian teammates put him in a position to win it for the team. The Indians improve to 8-2 overall and 3-1 in sub-section 3B standings.

INDIANS TAKEDOWN THE PLANETS

The North Hills wrestling team put on an impressive performance against the Mars Planets Friday night. The Indians were in complete control from start to finish and wasted no time in taking down the Planets by a score of 65-15. The Indians won 11 of the 14 bouts and got pin bonus points from Keagan Lawson, Luke Fotta, Val Caruso, and Gage Curry. Jake Stotz and Sean Bright received forfeits for the Indians. Armend Murtezi earned the only major decision of the night and Indians John MacPherson and Kevin Dreyer won by decision to help the Indians extend their win streak to six.

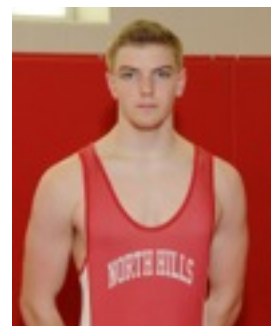

Indian of the week:

Val Caruso

This week we recognize two wrestlers as co-award winners for Indian of the week. Senior Val Caruso and Junior Jake Stotz both had defining matches to help propel their team to victory this week. Val earned 2 pins for the week and used a lateral drop to pin his Plum opponent and help give the Indians the team victory. Jake Stotz used what can only be described as old-school toughness as he overcame injury in order to prevent a 12 point swing in a pivotal match-up against the Mustangs.

Congrats to Val Caruso and Jake Stotz!

Jake Stotz

Coach's Message

*Are you willing to sacrifice things that the common man won't sacrifice to be special? Everybody wants success, but are you willing to sacrifice the things you have to in order to achieve long-term success? Man up and OWN IT, INDIANS!
