Officer Reports:

PRESIDENT – Molly reported that elections for next year's general booster board will be at the next meeting on May 2nd. If anyone is interested in running for a position, please contact Molly.

Molly reminded everyone that the scholarship application deadlines are April 15th.

General Boosters has 4 remaining parking spots available for auction and they will be available for auction in April or May.

Molly has met with GoFan and is hoping to streamline the process with them this year. GoFan should open in June for Booster sales.

VICE PRESIDENT –

John reported on the capital spending that General Boosters has and plans to do for the fiscal year. Details were provided at the meeting. If anyone did not attend the meeting, the details can be provided upon request.

TREASURER –

Jeff reported that he has just received some old invoices from Cady Studios from the 2021-2022 school year. He has confirmed that they were never paid. Any sport that has an invoice due will receive a copy of the invoice from Jeff and/or the individual sports treasurer.

If anyone is interested in the General Boosters treasurer role, please reach out to Jeff with any questions.
