18.4. This ensures accurate and timely updating of the standings on the league website.

19. GAMEPLAY RULES

19.1. Format

8 on 8

Refs will need league rosters from each team before the game for game management and liability reasons.

19.2.. A game is considered official once the first half of play has been completed. If a contest becomes a regulation game and is ended due to any unforeseen event, the game is complete and counts in the standings.

19.3. Maximum players on 10 on 10 fields

19.4. Minimum players to start a game is 7. Games can continue with a minimum of 6 players. If one team only has 5 players left, the game will be called, and the game will be given to the team with more than 5 players. The game will go down as a 1-0 forfeit win if the team with more than 5 players was losing. If the team with more than 5 players was winning, the final score will be whatever that score is, as long as a full half of the game has already been played.

19.5. All officials will be assigned by the CPSAL. If only one official appears, the game must still be played 19.6. Slide Tackles ARE ILLEGAL in Middle School Competition. Determination of a slide tackle is the referee's discretion.

19.8 There are no OT periods during the regular season.

19.9. Start of the Game and Restarts Preliminaries:

a) A coin is tossed and the team which wins the toss decides which goal it will attack in the first half of the match. The other team takes the kick-off to start the match.

b) The team which wins the toss takes the kick-off to start the second half of the match. In the second half of the match the teams change ends and attack the opposite goals.

c) A kick-off is a way of starting or restarting play:

- at the start of the match
- after a goal has been scored
- at the start of the second half of the match
- A goal may be scored directly from the kick-off.

19.10. Substitutions

a) Substitutions can be made at any point of the game. Subbing without notifying the referee will constitute loss of the ball.

19.11. Ball In or Out of Play

a) The ball is out of play when:

· It has crossed the goal line or touch line whether on the ground or in the air play has been stopped by the referee.

b) The ball is in play at all other times, including when:

· It rebounds from a goalpost, crossbar or corner flag and remains in the field of play · It rebounds from either the referee or an assistant referee when they are on the field of play.

19.12. Throw-in

A throw-in is awarded:

- When the whole ball passes over the touch line, either on the ground or in the air.
- From the point where it crossed the touch line.

19.13. Offside Position

a) A player is in an offside position if she/he is nearer to his opponents' goal line than both the ball and the second last opponent

b) A player in an offside position is only penalized if, at the moment the ball touches or is played by one of his team, he is, in the opinion of the referee, involved in active play by:

- Interfering with play.
- interfering with an opponent or
- gaining an advantage by being in that position

c) A player is not in an offside position if:

- s/he is in his own half of the field of play or

- s/he is level with the second last opponent or
- s/he is level with the last two opponents

d) No Offense

There is no offside offense if a player receives the ball directly from:

- a goal kick
- a throw-in
- a corner kick

19.14. Goal Scored

a) A goal is scored when the whole of the ball passes over the goal line, between the goalposts and under the crossbar, provided that no infringement has been committed previously by the team scoring the goal.

19.15. Point system

WIN 3 POINTS
FORFEIT WIN 3 POINTS

TIE 0 POINTS
LOSS FORFEIT LOSS 0 POINTS

19.16. Yellow Card Rule

- a) When an official "yellow cards" a player, she/he must leave the field. The player may return to the field at the next allowed substitution. Two yellow cards will result in a Red Card, which is an automatic ejection.
- b) The CPSAL Commissioner receives a daily report of all red and yellow cards that were issued.
- c) The Commissioner will then review the incident and send out an e-mail to the principal, athletic director and coach of that school notifying them of the suspension. The minimum suspension of a red card is 2 games, but the Commissioner has the right to adjust the suspension (add or decrease).

19.17. Yellow Card Accumulation Policy

- a) The accumulation of Yellow Cards during the soccer season by an individual player. The consequences for the accumulation of excessive Yellow Cards will be as follows:
- Five Yellow Cards accumulated by a single player in the regular season will result in a one game suspension.
 - In the event that the player receives two Yellow Cards in the same game, resulting in a Red Card, the two Yellow Cards will not count toward the season total, since the player will receive a minimum of two games suspension as a result of the misconduct and ejection. But the Commissioner has the right to adjust the suspension (add or decrease).

b) The accumulation card total is for regular season play only and the process will start over.

c) The referees are to report all Yellow Cards to the Commissioner by means of E-mail or Phone.

19.18. Red Card Accumulation Policy

a) The minimum suspension of a red card is two games, but the Commissioner has the right to adjust the suspension (add or decrease).
