The History Of The Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference (NKAC)

On May 13, 2019, the Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference celebrated the start of its 79th year of operation.

That was the date the Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference name was officially formed and adopted.

The origins of the conference began many years before in the early 1930's when the "Little Five Conference" began. Its members were Bellevue, Dayton, Highlands, Lloyd Memorial and Ludlow.

In 1935, Crescent Springs was admitted and the conference was renamed "The Little Six." It remained that until the NKAC was formed on May 13, 1940.

On that date, Beechwood and Simon Kenton were also invited to join the conference. By 1991 the conference had grown to 24 teams in two divisions. Today that number stands at 25 in three divisions.

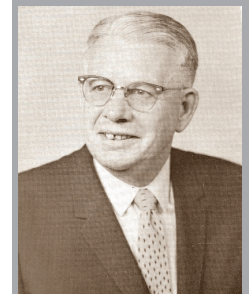

The first "Little Five" conference President was Russell Bridges of Highlands. He was followed by Edgar Arnett in 1935. John E. Scharr of Bellevue was the first NKAC Executive Secretary. He held that job until his death in 1962. Scharr was known all over Kentucky as "Mr. NKAC." He began as secretary of the "Little Five" Conference and had served from 1933 to 1962 (29 years).

Following Scharr's death Duncan Huey of Boone County and Harold Williams of Dixie Heights served the next two years.

Then, in 1965 Bob Miller took over and served another 27 years til 1992 when current Executive Secretary Stan Steidel, of the Covington Public School System, took over the reigns til Matt Wilhoite of the Kenton County School System took over in 2019. In those early years, the conference sponsored only football, basketball and track. Soon baseball was added and today the conference sponsors every varsity sport offered by the KHSAA adding Bowling for the 2011-12 school year... And Archery this year. It awards team championships with picture plaques, Outstanding Player Awards in each Division of each sport and awards All Opponent team selections with certificates. In addition, unlike most areas of the state, area athletic directors meet monthly to discuss concerns and plans for most topics of discussion. The NKAC sponsors either league play or conference tournaments in each varsity sport for boys and girls.

 Final Year: 2019

Sadly last year was the final year for sports at Silver Grove High School. The earliest known team was in 1930 coached by W.B. Ward. They had a .500 Or better record for their first 11 seasons of existence in basketball.

The girl's program began in 1976 and enjoyed their best success under coach Jim Elam from 1978 to 1988 when they produced three of the school's thousand point scorers two of which played Division I College basketball.

Al Anderson was coach of the boys 9 years and was known as the Father of the Suburban Conference. Dr. Tom Gabbard and many others patrolled the sidelines through the years. Their final boys coach was Tom Haney who coached the final two years and Jason Stewart who guided the girl's their final Season in 2018-19.

From 1930 til joining the NKAC in 1941 Silver Grove was a member of the Suburban Conference and Al Anderson was the Secretary and founder. The earliest known Silver Grove Sports picture below in 1941 the year they joined the NKAC.

About The NKAC Members

Did you know that of the 25 member schools that are members of the Northern Kentucky Athletic Conference 11 are from Kenton County, 8 from Campbell County and 6 from Boone County. When the KHSAA was formed in 1917 there were only 18 members which eventually reached a high of 572 in 1936-37. There are currently 292 member schools as a result of consolidations.

I'M RIGHT HERE.

Whether it's a twist, tweak, sprain or worse, St. Elizabeth Sports Medicine experts are there to ensure student athletes throughout 38 Northern Kentucky athletic partners can rebound quickly from injury and get back in the game.
